ANCI - Italian Footwear Manufacturers' Association

A.N.C.I. - The National Association of Italian Footwear Manufacturers - groups together Italian footwear manufacturers. Approximately 800 firms belong to the Association. The turnover produced by the member companies represents approximately 70% of the overall Italian footwear production. The purpose of A.N.C.I. is to examine, support and promote projects of an economical, technical and scientific nature in the interest of the shoe industry and to represent it at all institutional levels. The association is particularly dedicated to promoting the industry in the most important foreign markets in order to ensure the good image and the presence of Italian footwear which is renowned for its creativity, style, original design and detailed workmanship of an artisan nature, as well as for the use of carefully selected materials. A.N.C.I. Servizi S.r.l. is the association's services company through which it organizes the MICAM Shoevent, the leading world-wide footwear exhibition.
